1867-003 Chancery Causes: Joel Bays vs. Robert McCrosky &c
Lee Co.

Holland, Davis

CA - Contract Dispute

To the Worshipful Court of Lee County Virginia

The bill of Complaint of Isaac Days respectfully represents That Robert McCroskey and Holland of the State of Georgia employed your Orator to make certain purchases for them of hogs in this and other Counties That in pursuance of the said contract & agreement your Orator with the said McCroskey & Holland he purchased on the 15th day of Nov. for them from Messrs Jos. Ewing A. Ewing & Robert Ewing & others in the said County 250 hogs and for and in consideration of your Orators services in buying for them the said hogs they the said McCroskey & Holland undertook and faithfully promised them to pay your Orator the sum of $250.00 that is one dollar on each head.

Nevertheless your Orator avers that the said McCroskey & Holland have not kept their Contract as they promised to do. But have departed this State without having paid him the said sum of money or any part thereof nor has either of them paid him the said sum of money as yet or any part thereof

And your Orator alleges that the said McCroskey & Holland nor either of them own any Estate in this

This State except That Jam Orator alleges that ~~And Defendants~~ one William Davis has in his hands and owes to the said Mc Crosky & Holland the sum of $100 which is now due & payable Jam Orator therefore prays that the said ~~Def~~ Robert McCrosky & Holland and William Davis be made parties defendants to this bill and answer the Statements which it Contain on oath, that the said Davis answer on oath ~~that~~ what amount he owes the said McCrosky & Holland and that he be restrained from paying the same or any part thereof until the further order of this Court and that on a final hearing Jam Orator obtain a decree against the said McCrosky & Holland for the said $250. as and also a decree against the said Davis for whatever sum it may appear he owes to the said McCrosky & Holland and grant further & general relief. May it please Jam Worships to grant Commonwealth writ of Sps. directed &c
